Prime University Celebrates Victory Day

A view of the dais at the celebration program of the Victory Day 2017

Prime University celebrated the 47th Victory Day paying homage to the martyrs of the war of liberation of 1971. The University commemorated the day with different programs, including hosting of the national flag, discussion session and cultural functions. Special prayers were offered seeking divine blessing for the martyrs of the Liberation War.

Mir Shahabuddin, Chairman, BOT started the program by hoisting the national flag, while the national anthem was played. A discussion program with due solemnity, respects and gratitude was held on the occasion where the discussants deeply remembered the supreme sacrifices the valiant freedom fighters had made at the call of Bangabondhu against the Pakistani occupation army who carried out horrible genocides killing millions of unarmed civilians. Finally, a colorful cultural program was also staged by the artists of the University.

Intellectual Martyrs Day Observed in Prime University

Fourteen December of the year 1971 is the most poignant day in the history of Bangladesh. Prime University observed the day with due solemnity to show deep tributes to those enlightened and precious personalities of the nation. On the occasion the black flag was hoisted by the Vice Chancellor Prof Dr M Abdus Sobhan in front of the University at 6:00 am and then Prime University family gathered at the Memorial and placed floral wreaths to honor the martyred intellectuals. A discussion program was also held at the University permanent campus where the Chairman of BOT Mir Shahabuddin graced the program as the Chief Guest and the Vice Chancellor of the University was present as the Chair of the occasion.
